

Uptown Asian Festival 2025

To celebrate Asian cultures, discover local artists, promote community engagement, foster cross-cultural understanding, and provide a memorable experience for all attendees.

Learn, Speak, Act! is a global call for concrete action against racism, discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance. The challenges posed by these problems are not new, neither are their solutions. What is needed is action – by governments, institutions, groups, and individuals – all of us.

- Light Sculpture Show for the whole festival (29/8 - 1/9, 7:45pm – 10:45pm)
- Local Performance: Live Band Shows, Dancing, Singing, Lion & Dragon Dance Performance.

Terms and Conditions

If you are applying for a food booth, you must provide proof of a valid food handler's certificate, copy of your most recent Public Health Inspection Report, and valid commercial general liability insurance of two million dollars or more. The insurance certificate must name the RICHMOND HILL Uptown Asian Festival as an additional insured.

All food vendors must comply with Toronto Public Health Special Event requirements, and be able to attend a special event training session before the festival, which takes place at Toronto Public Health office, address, and date to be confirmed.

Due to booth registration demands, submission of this registration form does not guarantee the allocation of any booth space to the registrant, until the organizer has signed. The allocation of booth space is based on a combination of factors, including, but not limited to variety, level of public interest and compatibility with the Festival.

Booths

1. Each Vendor will get an authorized parking space aside the venue
2. Booth spaces will be pre-assigned. The Organizer has the discretion to assign and reassign booth spaces to ensure that similar booths are not too close in proximity. The floorplan will be finalized 15-20 days before the event. Vendors who pay the deposit first will have the first opportunity to select their booth location.
3. The booth space of 10' x 10' area designated by the Organizer is to be used solely for the contracted exhibitor whose name appears on the application form and/or approved by Organizer. Subletting or assigning any rights under this agreement or portions of the rented space without prior written consent from the Organizer would be subject to additional charges or removal from the Carnival area.
4. Exhibitors must comply with all the regulations of the facility host and all Federal, Provincial and Municipal laws and by-laws including health and fire safety requirements.
5. Exhibitors must purchase the Commercial General Liability (CGL) insurance and provide proof of such to the Organizer. Insurance requirements will be provided to you once your application has been approved.
6. Food & Beverage exhibitors must have at least one representative who always holds a valid Food Handler Certificate present at the booth during the Carnival. Proof of such Food Handler Certificate must be provided to the Organizer.

Booth Activities

1. The Organizer has full authority to stop exhibitors from operating should the exhibitor sell or promote products and/or services other than those stated in the application form.
2. Exhibitors are not allowed to give away any food or beverage in any format.
3. Exhibitors and their representatives are prohibited from soliciting, selling, and promoting their products or services, displaying products or placing furniture, signage and decorations outside of their assigned space
4. Sound devices, music and/or motion pictures are restricted to within the exhibitor's booth and must be kept below the annoyance level as decided by the Organizer. No flashing lights are permitted.
5. No exhibitor shall sell or distribute any form of helium-filled balloons
6. No religious items of any form can be distributed on site.
7. No smoking is allowed in the booths.

Tents & Electricity

Exhibitors who bring their own tents must install enough counterweights to secure the tent from wind. Exhibitors must provide their own electric generators and outdoor extension cords and power strips.

A penalty will be issued by the government if anything is stuck into the ground/grass. Minimum weight of each tent: 120lb.

Hours of Operation

Exhibitors must be always open for sales and operation during the Carnival. Failure in doing so may result in penalty and/ or removal from the Carnival.

Grounds Security

Organizer provides overnight grounds security for the Carnival area. Please keep equipment, products, and valuables under personal supervision before and during the event. The Organizer, Venue and Security are not responsible for any losses or damage.

Clean-Up and Breakdown

All goods, tents and display items must stay in place until the end of the Carnival. Exhibitors must dispose all their own trash and recyclables. No liquid can be poured down the rain drainage. Exhibitors who fail to properly dispose of unwanted items and clean their area will result in a monetary penalty.

Liability

In the event any translation of this Agreement is prepared for convenience or any other purpose, the provisions of the English version shall prevail. Violation of any terms or conditions may result in penalty, immediate removal from the event by the security and/or a ban for any future events. The Organizer has the final interpretation of any terms and phrases in the above terms and conditions. Liability: The Federation of Asian Canadians Toronto, its officers, staff, and/or board of directors shall not be responsible for any injuries, losses, or damages to any persons, goods, equipment, or decorations, caused by accident, and/or other causes prior to/during the 2025 Carnival.

I have read and agree to the Terms of Participation Agreement
